Chapter 1 by Adirondack Lotus

Carly Winston. The crown jewel of Newman High. No one can say something is beautiful without comparing it to her. She had it all, popularity, good looks, wealthy, and an athlete. She has even won Newman a few soccer trophies.

Why I obsess about her is beyond me. I'm not the stalker type of person, but for some reason I can't keep my eyes off her. I'm at such a distance most times, it really doesn't matter since I don't get caught. Okay, now that sounded creepy.

I can just see her right now. Practicing on the field. How she can make such a sport graceful baffles me. Her air like silk cloth blowing in the wind, her eyes piercing but gentle. Her body is so-

"Carol!" My teacher snapped, breaking me from my trance. "Um...Yes, Mr. Allen?" I responded, keeping my composure. "Care to share what you were looking at that was more interesting than my lecture?" He asked.
